Tom Tancredo Was The Guest Speaker for June

We were blessed at the June meeting to hear a little angel named Stella Martin who sang our National Anthem for us. Stella did a beautiful job and sang that song much better than some of the professionals who have tried this difficult choice. A BIG THANK YOU to Stella!!

Tom Tancredo spoke to a group of approximately 18 people about the problems we are experiencing in America today. Tom reminded us that there has never been a President who was able to be re-elected when the economy was down but advised us that as much as the economy is a problem in the United States, it is multiculturalism that is hurting us the most. He said that countries need to have an identity and people need to have the same overall reasons for being here. He advised that our parents and grandparents who entered this country came for the same reasons, the need for freedom and jobs and that they enveloped themselves in our language and culture, something that is not happening today.

Tom also told us of the importance of doing everything we can to make sure Obama is not re-elected so that we leave our country to our children and grandchildren with the same freedoms and opportunities we have enjoyed.

It is always a pleasure to have Tom Tancredo speak to our group. Thank you Tom!

Letter From The US Chamber of Commerce

Today, the Supreme Court of the United States issued their much-anticipated ruling on the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, better known as Obamacare, upholding the law as Constitutional.

While we respect the Court's ruling, it doesn't change the clear reality that this health care law is fundamentally flawed and immensely unpopular with the American people.

Without much-needed reforms, this law is certain to cost many Americans their employer-based health insurance, undermine job creation, and raise health care costs for us all.

Following today's outcome, one thing is true. Our country can't afford the failed policies from the last few years, allowing Congress to ram through legislation that stifles growth with taxes and mandates instead of spurring it with American enterprise.

After leading the fight against Obamacare two years ago, we have 131 days until the election to finish what we started, and send a clear message to Washington.

Now more than ever, we need your help. The U.S. Chamber is engaged in our most aggressive efforts in our 100 year history to hold candidates accountable for their position on the issues most consequential to our economy.

With your continued support, candidates can't hide from their vote in favor of Obamacare.

We need policymakers to work with job creators, instead of against them, to develop genuine, common sense reforms that will control costs, improve access, ensure quality, and promote wellness.

These are the reforms we need. And they are absolutely achievable. And with the Court's decision, the need for action has never been greater.

We hope you'll be a part of this effort to bring real, true, and meaningful reform that improves the quality and affordability of health care that Americans receive and stand with us in the coming days. It's time to remind Washington that at the end of the day – voters have the final say.

Sincerely,

Rob Engstrom
Senior Vice President and National Political Director
U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Liberals Claim “ObamaTax” Punishes “Free Riders”

Posted by Conservative Byte July 3, 2012

I've about had all this I can take. Free riders, a penalty for free riders. What an attitude shift this is toward the uninsured. What an about-face this is. Pelosi, the Democrats are pushing for Obamacare back in 2009 and 2010, and they were bombarding us with heartbreaking stories about the 30 to 50 million people who had to go without health insurance. And they weren't free riders, they were victims. They were victims of a mean country, victims of the rich, victims of corporations, victims of small business. They were victims of the 1%. We were even told that 45,000 people die every year because they couldn't get health insurance, and now all of a sudden they're a bunch of freeloaders? Now all of a sudden since the Supreme Court ruling has come out and made this effectively ObamaTax instead of Obamacare, now they're free riders?

This is the party that celebrates free riders. This is the party that devotes itself to creating even more free riders. This is a party that could not survive without free riders and freeloaders. This is a party that does everything it can to make people as dependent as possible on the government. Free riders, freeloaders. And now this ruling is apparently so distasteful that the Democrat Party has to do a 180 and start attacking their own voters. Well, what happened to the precious 30 to 50 million uninsured? This is the piece de resistance, Democrats like Nancy Pelosi mocking free riders. The entire mission of the Democrat Party is to create more and more free riders. Haven't they seen to it that almost half the country doesn't pay income tax, a bunch of free riders?

Isn't their goal to get more and more people dependent on the government? Didn't they spend millions advertising for more people to take free hand-outs from the government? Isn't there a big advertising campaign on right now to expand the scope of food stamps to the food free riders? Hell's bells, folks, the Democrat Party is the free rider party. How do you say free riders in Spanish? Joe Muniz, up in our sound bite central, Joe, I want you to send me an e-mail or a text, send me a phonetic spelling of free rider in Espanol. Well? Guess what. That's what Obamacare is all about now, punishing the free riders. It's just you evil people who can pay, but you don't, and you go to the emergency room when you get sick. What the hell is insuring preexisting conditions if it's not a bunch of free riders?
