LESLIE D. WHITE HEADLINED SEPTEMBER'S MEETING

Leslie White, from the Colorado chapter of Americans For Prosperity was the guest speaker for our September meeting. Leslie gave an educational and entertaining discussion of economics in America. We would like to thank Leslie for making the trek to the mountains. This was an excellent presentation and it was very much appreciated by the group.

"Americans For Prosperity—Colorado, is committed to educating Coloradans about economic policy and mobilizing those citizens as advocates in the public policy process. AFP Colorado is an organization of grassroots leaders who engage citizens in the name of limited government and free markets on the local, state and federal levels. The grassroots members of AFP Colorado advocate for public policies that champion the principles of entrepreneurship and fiscal and regulatory restraint. To these ends, AFP Colorado supports:

Cutting taxes and government spending in order to halt the encroachment of government in the economic lives of citizens by fighting proposed tax increases and pointing out evidence of waste, fraud and abuse.

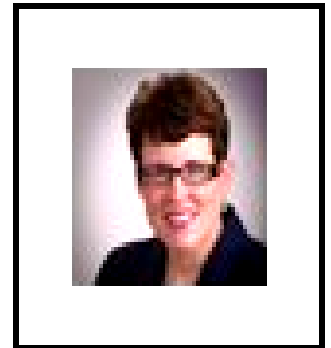

Tax and expenditure limitations to promote fiscal responsibility.

Removing unnecessary barriers to entrepreneurship and opportunity by sparking citizen involvement in the regulatory process early on in order to reduce red tape.

Restoring fairness to our judicial system."

RALLY OF THE YEAR!!

STAND WITH ISRAEL!!

3. Kissinger: No More Israel in 10 Years

New York Post columnist Cindy Adams asserts that former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger predicted the end of the state of Israel within 10 years.

Adams does not specify when or where Kissinger made that statement. But she writes: “Middle East horror. Democratic Party dissing Jerusalem. DC’s anti-Israel mentality. Obama, busy raising re-election funds, no time for beleaguered Netanyahu. The Oval Office attitude versus the Red Line. Iran’s oath to destroy our only friend in that part of the world.

“Reported to me, Henry Kissinger has stated — and I quote the statement word for word: ‘In 10 years, there will be no more Israel.’

Benjamin Netanyahu

“Nothing has changed in the Iranian nuclear program. Perhaps people did not know the pace of progress (of the Iranian program) and this is what my speech (before the U.N.) meant to present. Time is running out.”

GUTIERREZ: IF OBAMA WINS, GOP WILL YIELD ON IMMIGRATION

Congress’ leading Hispanic lawmaker, Rep. Luis Gutierrez, predicts that if President Barack Obama is re-elected, a weakened Republican Party will strike a deal with him on immigration reform next year.

The Illinois Democrat says he has received no promises from the Obama administration on immigration reform, but he tells The Hill he is “absolutely positive” that Obama will make immigration reform a priority in a second term.

President George W. Bush could not overcome GOP opposition to his comprehensive reform plan. But Gutierrez, chairman of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Immigration Task Force, says an Obama win in the November election would prove a game changer.

“The sheer number of Latinos voting against Mitt Romney will force GOP leaders to support reforms for fear of alienating those voters indefinitely,” The Hill observes.

The Romney campaign has said he needs 38 percent of the Latino vote to defeat Obama. But a recent poll by Latino Decisions had Obama leading Romney 68 percent to 26 percent, and by a whopping 74 percent to 21 percent among Hispanic women.

Obama won points among Hispanics this summer by launching a new program forgoing deportations for qualified illegal immigrants who were brought to this country as children.

Gutierrez believes that following an Obama victory, Republican leaders will heed Sen. Marco Rubio and former Florida Gov. Jeb Bush, who are calling on the GOP to agree to immigration reform or risk losing Latino voters for years to come.

In a recent interview with Univision, Obama blamed Republicans for blocking immigration reform during his first term, but added that he shared some of the blame, calling the issue his “biggest failure.”
